in pursuit of happiness...

IKE Burton Massawadox, Va.

Burton,
well, this wine feast
year has almost ended. Shit, I hate writing so I am just going to say you should start smoking again
David

Yes,
this year has been really very great but I guess I will be great to go swimming
again, I mean swimming
the last show & thanks
looks for letting me
please your Derrals.
Thank ya much,
Dave

See ya
this summer love ya,

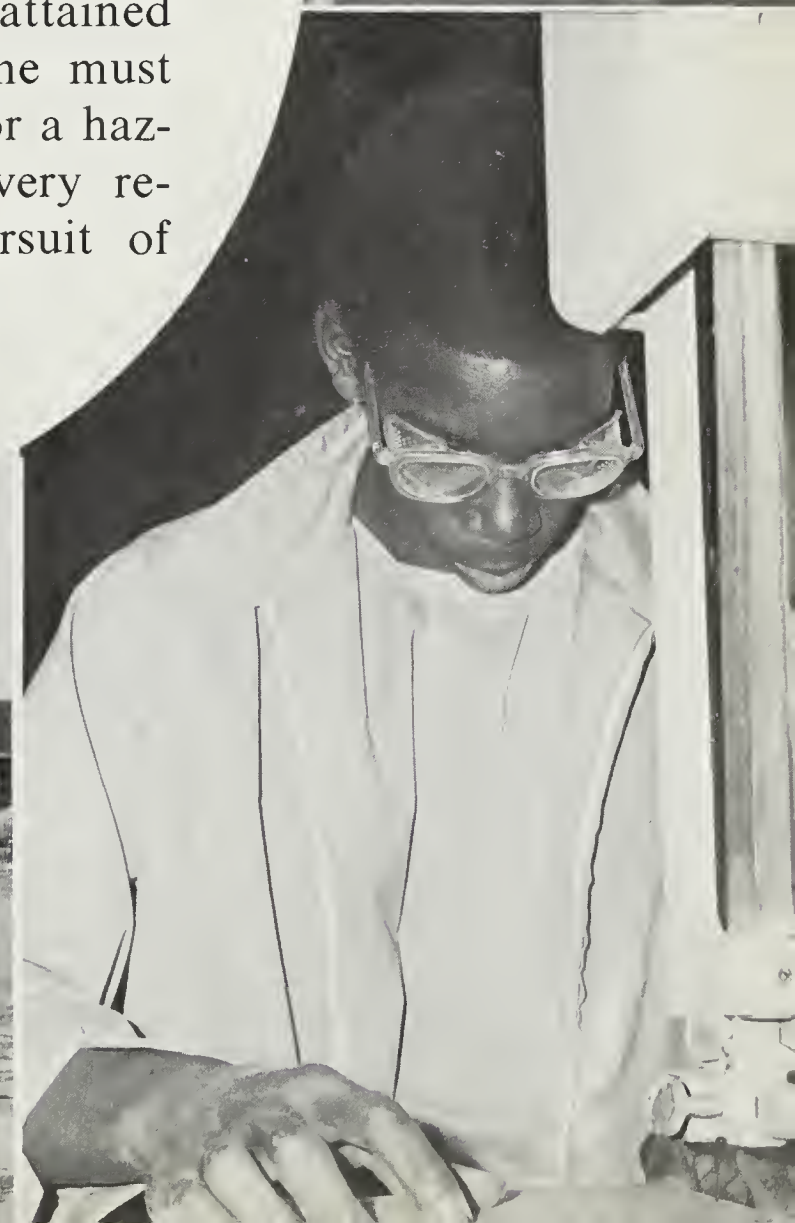
"High school" — its meaning is as varied as the students who roam, trudge or stride down its halls. Somehow though, all of these students are searching for walks that will lead them much farther, that will end in individual contentment. None of them — or at most a rare few — has attained his final goal; instead, he must gather all his resources for a hazardous, but sometimes very rewarding trek . . . in pursuit of happiness.



SCHOOL LIFE

Burton,

This year wasn't too bad, typing class was a bummer though. Don't forget all the class meetings and the great prom coming up. It's going to be good, I can tell with a class like ours. Don't forget those *special days in school. And the new thing with MKB, SAA, KRP, + JPT. Don't forget Pro's party that night when the cops decided to come to it. Or that movie when K and I went and sat beside you and Martha. Last but not least don't forget last year and all the hell raisen we did in the nurdrummer. Have a ~~real~~ nice summer and be good to Martha. Good luck always.

Burton,

This English class has really been unbelievable, though! I'd remember it as a dream. Remember all the concerts, especially Cocker and Sull! WINE! Keep it smooth this summer and I'll see you buzzing around.

Buttor,

This yr. has been pretty good. And only 1 more to go. Remember days in typing class + all those tricks we tried to pull on Mrs. Kellam. We are lucky she likes us are we would get cossed out every day. We'll have to keep our carpool next year & maybe you get a car that won't use so much gas. It's been fun but hard work on the prom. But it will pay off the 13th. Don't get too stoned this summer. See you around

CLASSES

Brother,

What can I say to someone who has helped me with my problems, been near-by when I needed somebody and lent me money when I needed it. What can I say but thanks Even though we haven't seen as much of each other this year as we did last, I still feel as close to you.

Don't [illegible] forget all the wild times we have had together. I want [illegible] to take real good care of Mo[illegible] She is really a lucky g[illegible] to have someone as sweet and understanding as you. I realize that in my [illegible] life I have made many mi[illegible]kes but meeting you sure was[illegible] one of them.

Buton I re[illegible] don't know what to say. There just aren't words enough to express my deepest feelings for you. Just think next year we'll be seniors. It seems like just yesterday when we were in kindergarden together, remember.

Just remember one more thing, and that is that I love you Buton and I always will.

Come see me this summer.

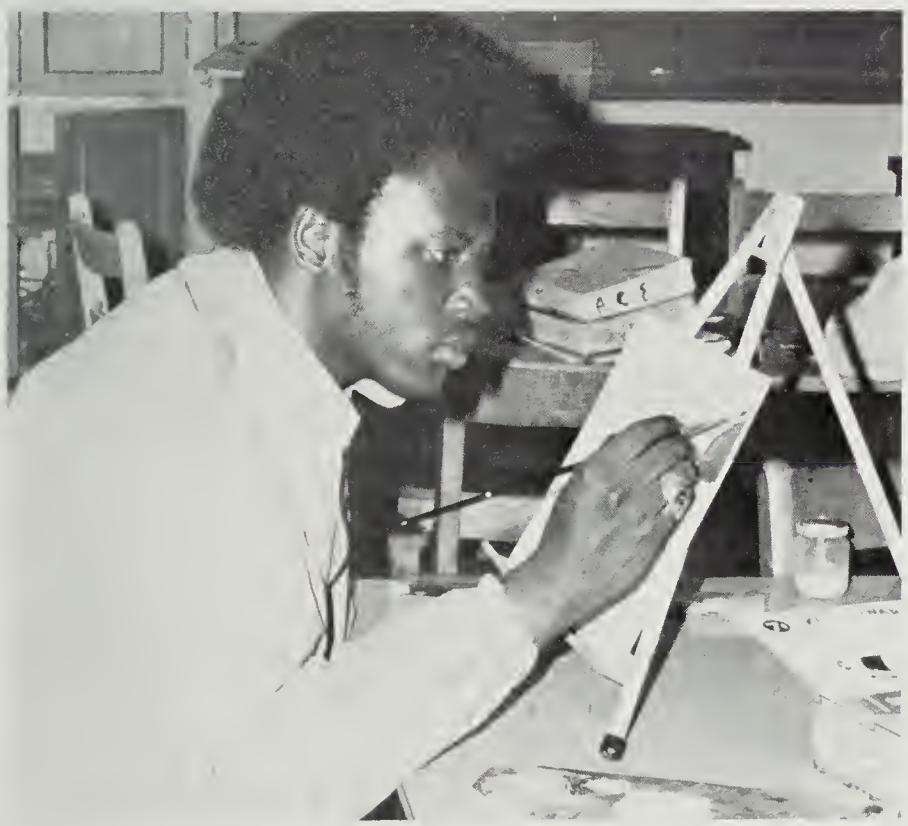
Love you always,
S.S.

Seniors At Last

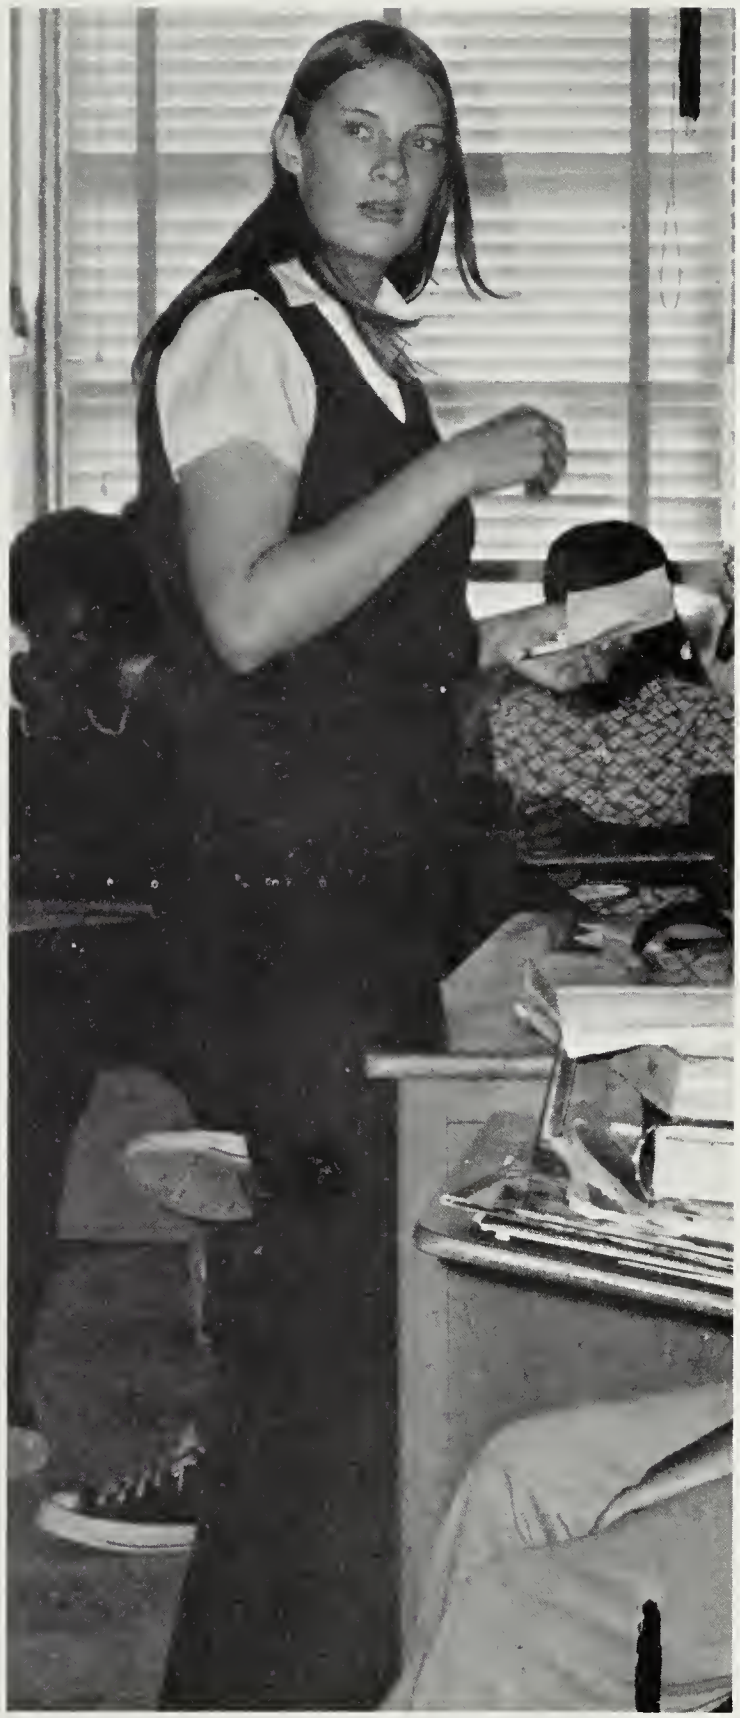
CLASS OFFICERS: Ella Johnson (Secretary), Becky Olexa (President), Brenda Ames (Vice President), and Glen Tittermary (Treasurer) can't decide if they want to leave school or not.

Senior boys enjoy the first football pep rally.

"If that fly comes over here one more time, I'm gonna swat it!"



Tyrone has learned that discipline and hard work are the keys to happiness.



Karen thought she saw a camera.

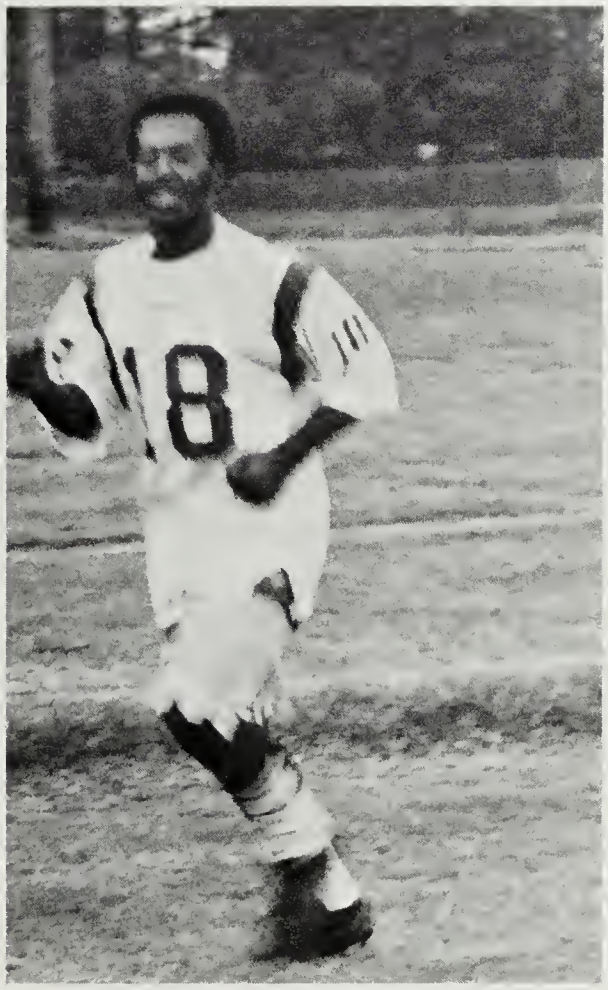
Seniors Are A Spirited Bunch

Bob Brown, just being natural.

Martha leads the students at a pep rally.

"V-i-c-t-o-r-y: that's our senior battle cry!"

Meanwhile, back in Chemistry class . . .



John Green keeps in good shape by running.

Variety Is The Spice Of Life

— and this is one of the industrious seniors!

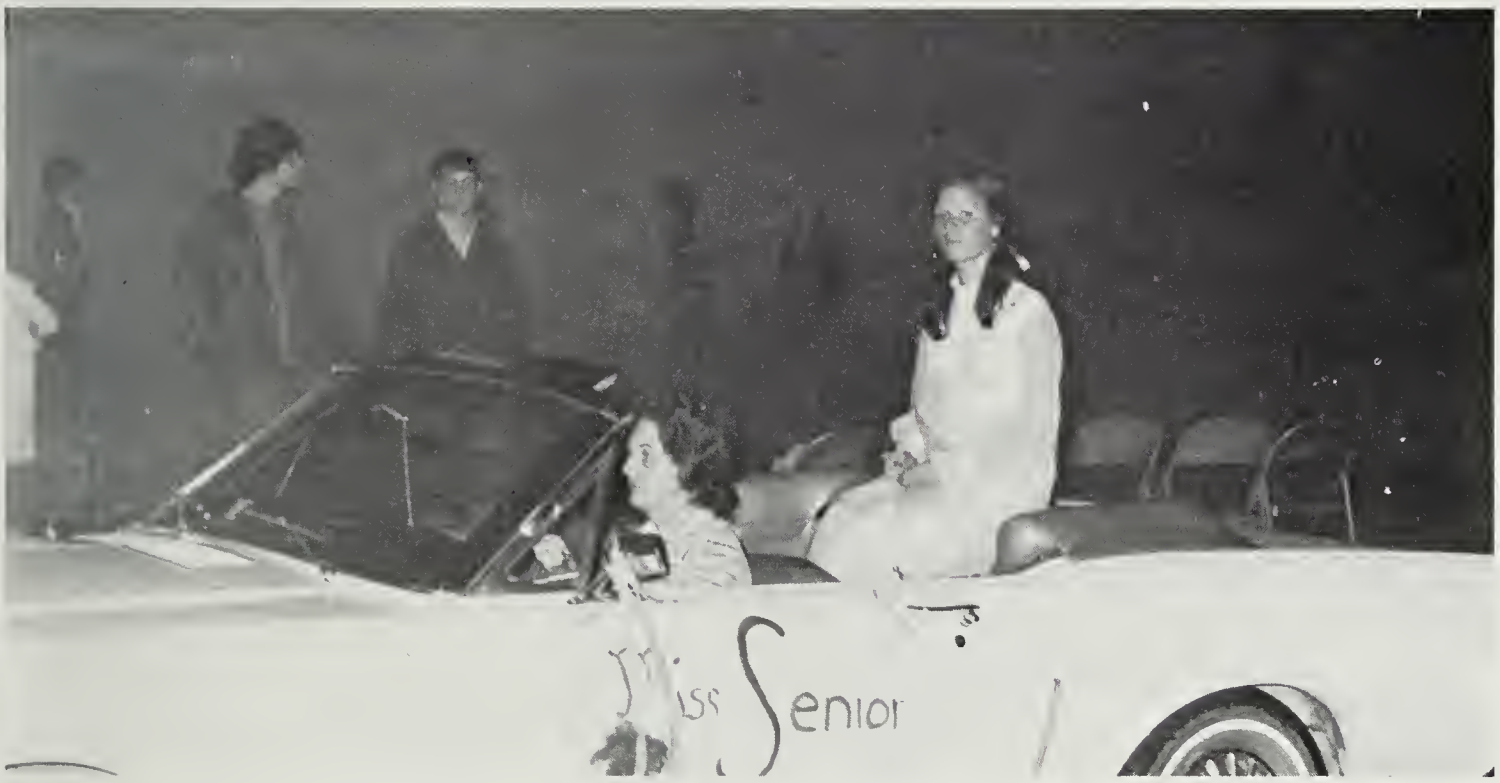
Annette puts up the "KOPE Week" bulletin board.

Hi Tke,
this year sure has been a lot of fun (with few exceptions). But I'll sure be glad when school is over. You'd better keep that girl, you won't find another one like her (as cook that is). If I have my way you'll see me graduating in the summer. (✓ good looking lot this hey?) The 13th of next month is going to be a small. Because a doubly occasion thing, I wouldn't remember.

Don't [illegible]

Pam seems to have been affected by the paint.

"You realize the verdict rests in our hands."



Kathy Widgen was Miss Senior for this year's homecoming.

"Sparked by the addition of three new members to the team, the Jackets made a turnabout from their six-game losing streak of the first semester and finished with a respectable 8-10 record in the toughest group AA district in the state. Led by All-District center Bob Brown, the Jackets' comeback in the second semester was capped by winning the District Tournament Championship for the first time in the history of Northampton High School. The Jackets, by winning the tournament, advanced to the regional contest." — Coach Webb

Ike,

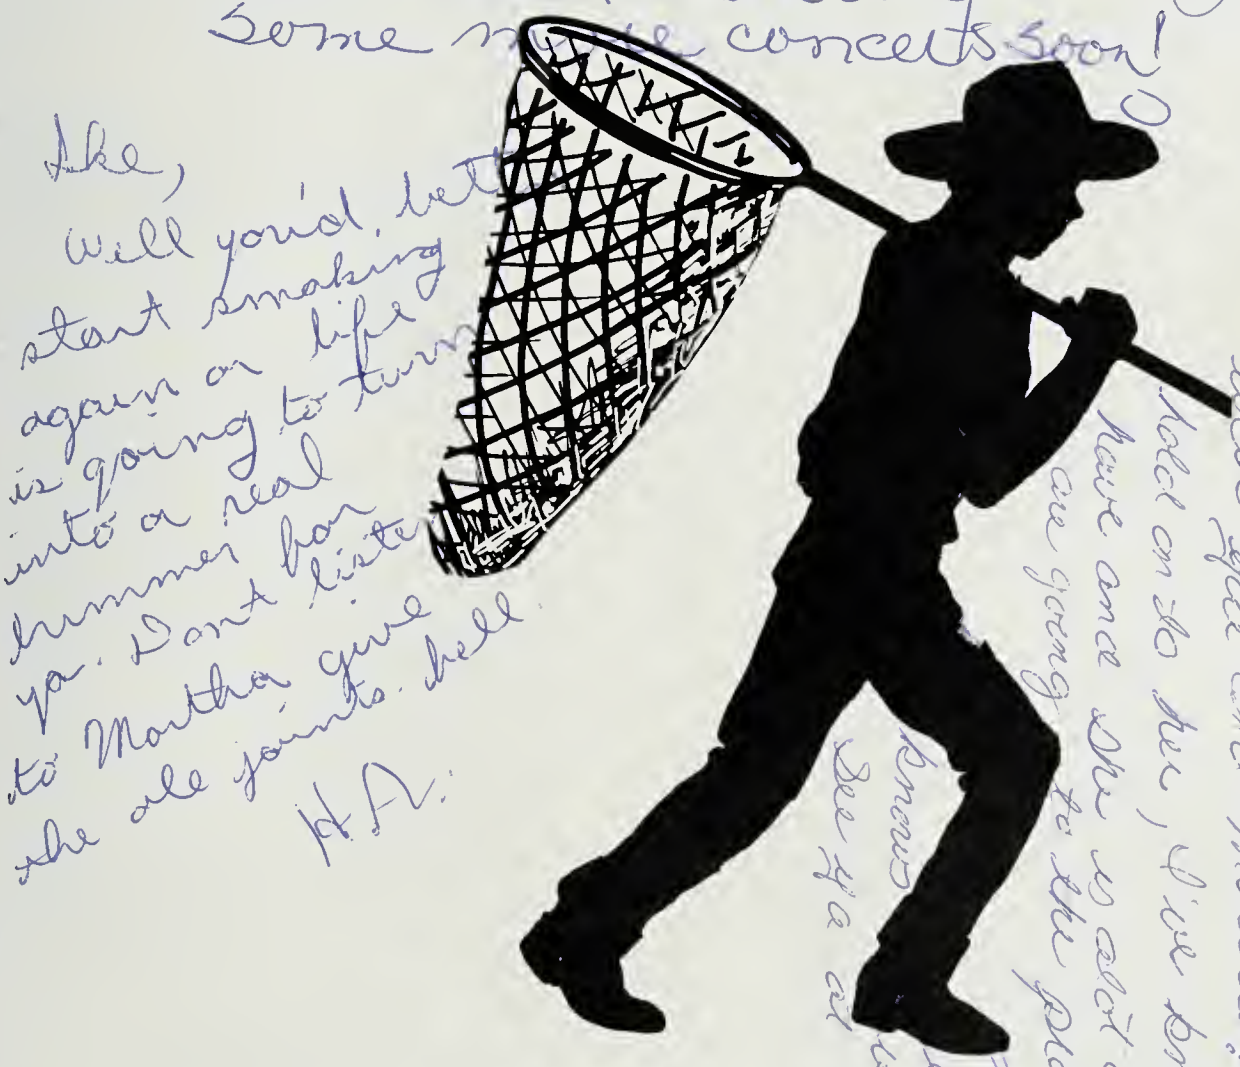
Well I really don't know what to say but anyway be good to Martha. You're really lucky to have her. She's a great girl. We all have sure had some great times together. Just wait till this summer and we can all raise some

Well, can't think of anything else to say - so behave yourself and I'll see ya -

Oh - We'll have to make it to some more concerts soon!

Love ya,
Jane

ADVERTISEMENTS



Ike,

Well you'd better start smoking again or life is going to turn into a real summer bar. Don't listen to Martha, give the ale joints hell.

H.A.

Ike,

Well we haven't really been too good. Maybe, but maybe Hallett and I could get back together and Martha and I'll never forget that night Bill and I double dated Martha. Martha is a sweet girl. Have an so good to her, I've known her longer than you have and she is a lot of fun. Hallett and I have an engagement so ... we'll see you at the prom anyway. Be good and look to Martha, (she knows what is good for you!)

See ya at Pop's! Love ya,
Cindy

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES EXCITING JOBS

Your Future, Your Decision · Choose Army ·

Army Schooling—Name Your Choice of Training

Meet Your Army Recruiter

The Army has it! The Army offers training in your choice of hundreds of courses. These cover practically every phase of every job. They are designed to equip you for added responsibilities in the Army—to move you ahead in your military career. Even if you decide to return to civilian life after completing your military obligation, the training you get in the Army will give you an edge in getting the kind of job you want.

All Army training falls into three broad categories: Service Schools . . . Career Fields . . . and the Combat Arms Program. You simply select one that interests you most, and if you qualify, that particular program is guaranteed in writing by the Army before you enlist.

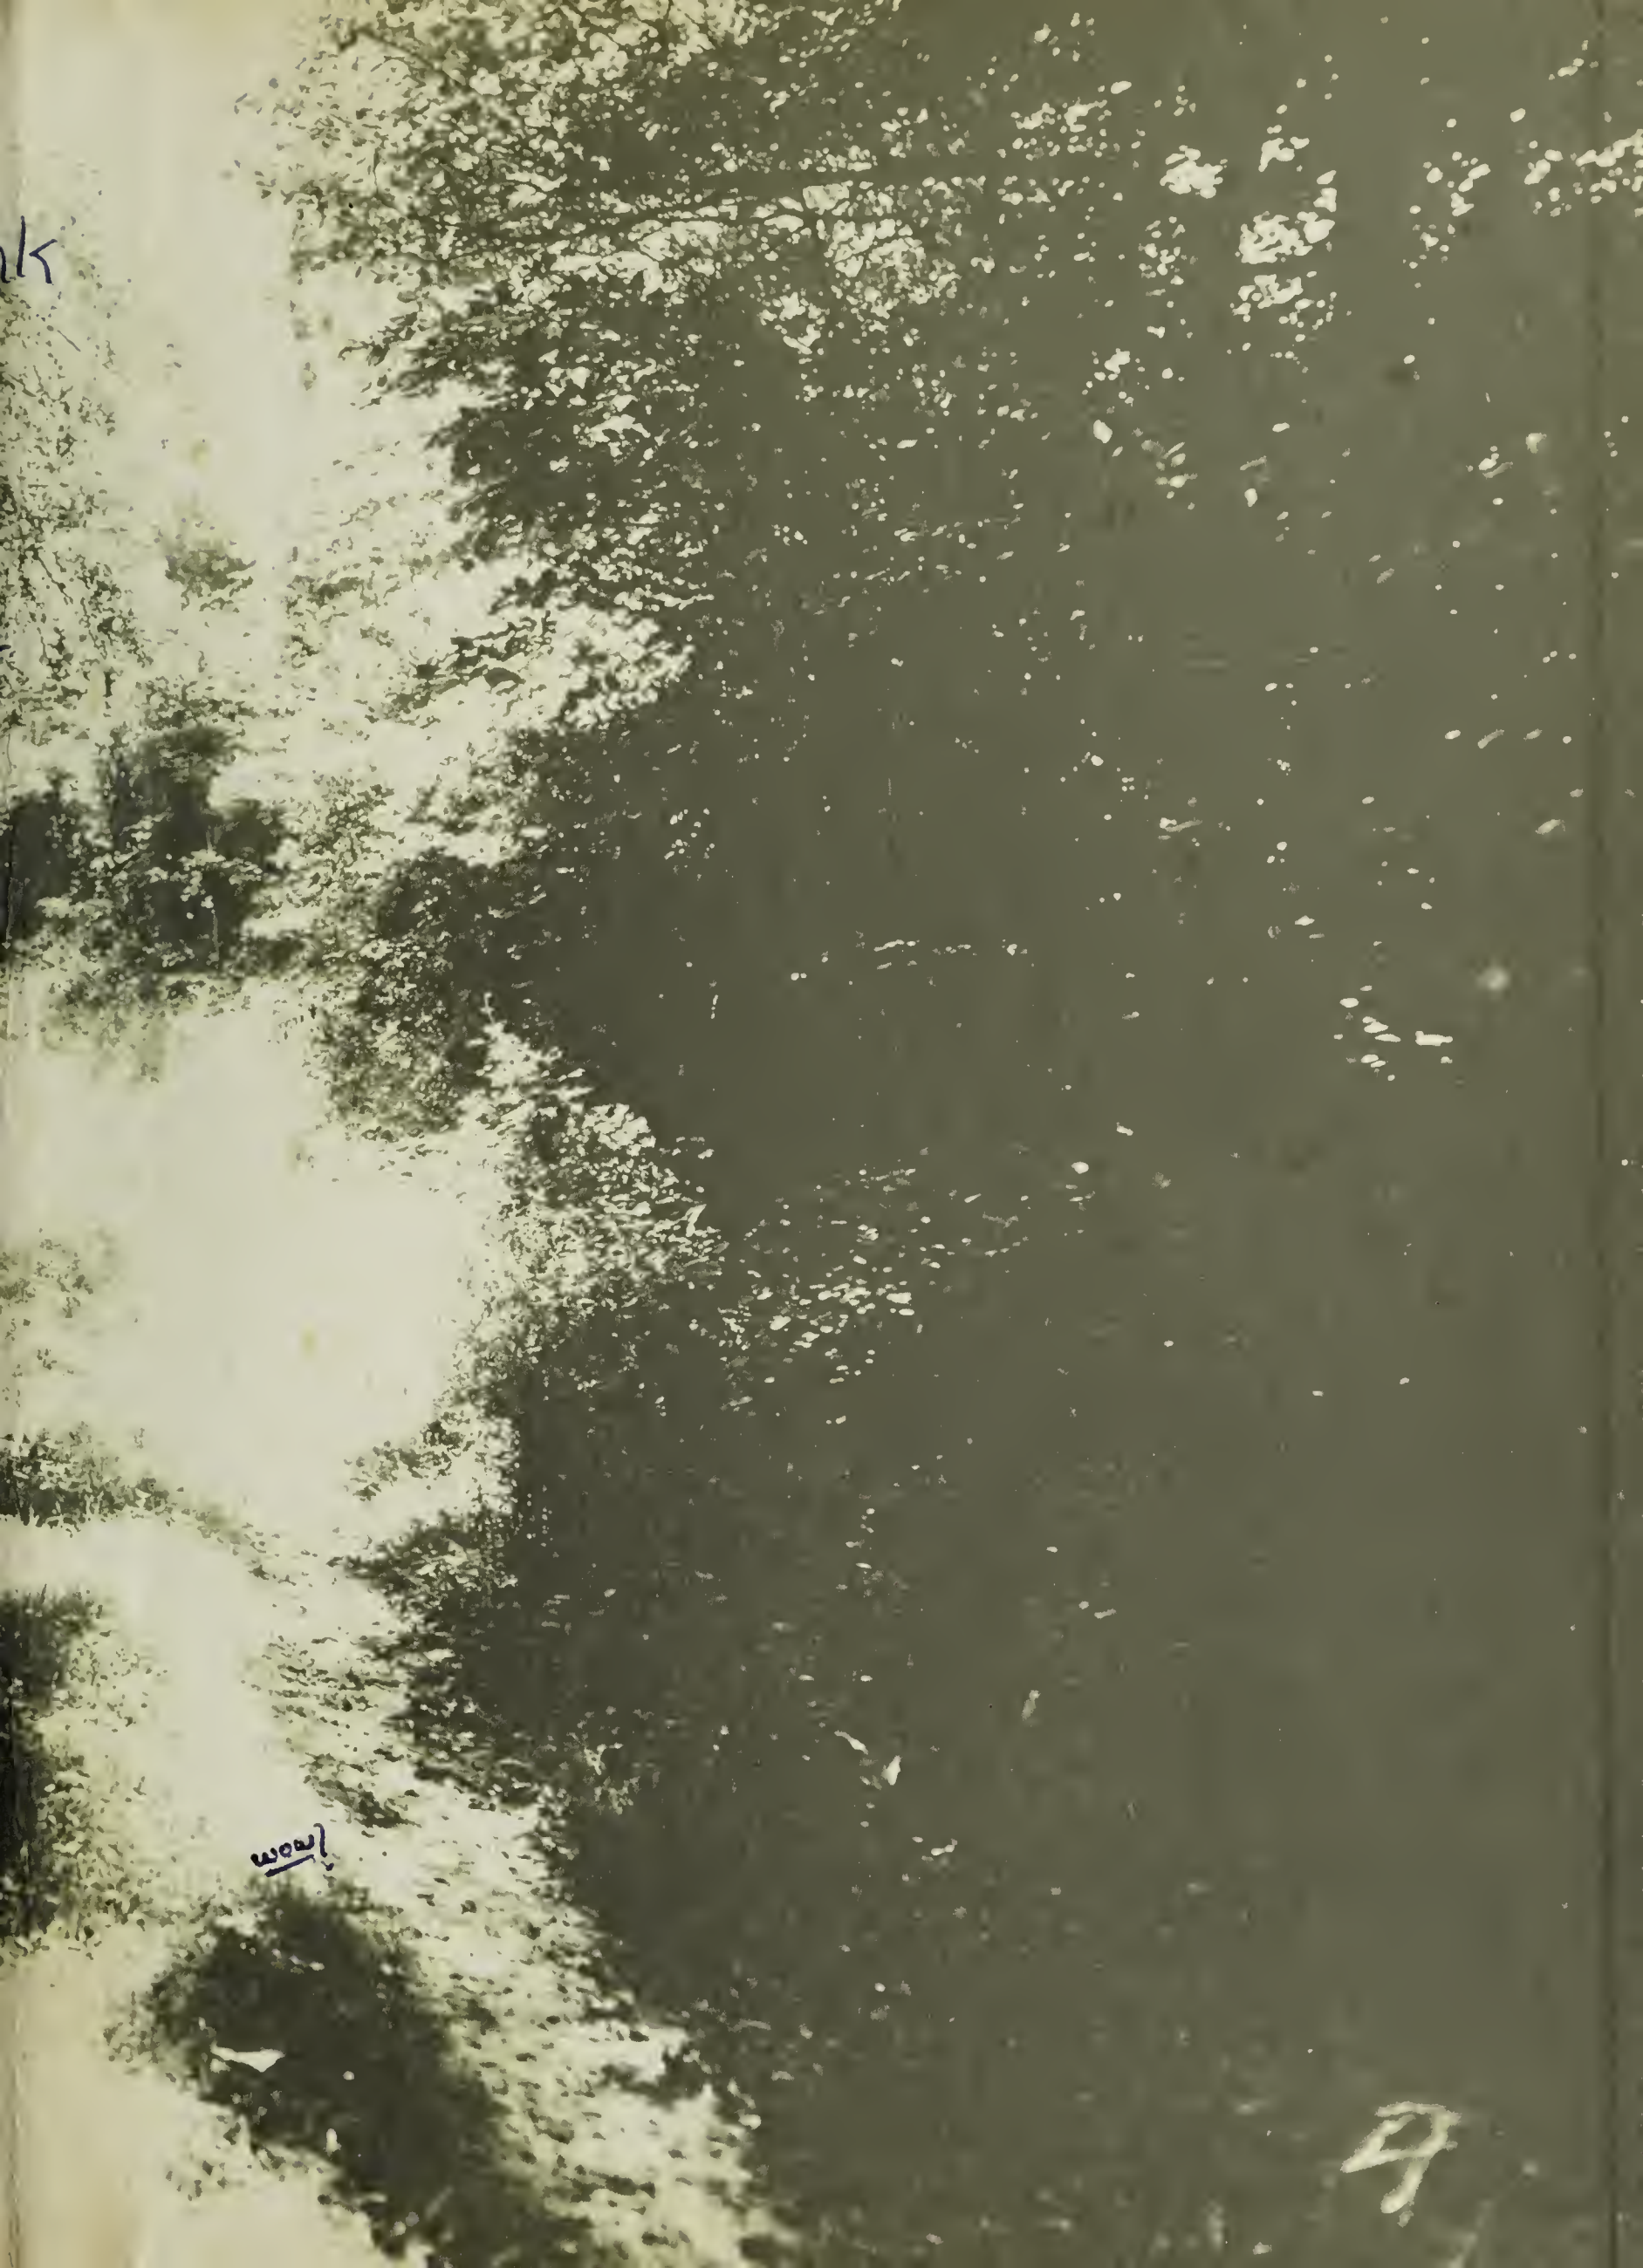
Hi Love,

Well it's been a great year except for school and thank God thats almost over. Just think we'll have the whole summer together. It looks like its going to be a great one. Anyway Mr. Burton we'll make it great.

Always remember everything we've done together. I'll never be able to forget any of it. All the hell raisen, the concerts, dances, movies, parties, raisen some and running with friends, ridding, walking, laughing, being crazy, drinking, bitching, loving, and just being alone together; I'd never give any of it. (BABY DUCK)

You don't know how glad I am that things have worked out like they have. You're a great guy and you mean alot more to than you'll ever know. Sometimes I wonder why you put up with me, my moods, and the hassel that seems to be around alot of the time. (The prom; ect.) You giving up what you did means alot to me & so I guess I can't say too much about you and drinking. Remember I'm thinking of you!

OVER →

I Love you, Ike, and no matter what happens to us I don't think I could ever stop. Always take care of yourself, honey and never give up on things that will mean alot in the future. Always remember I Love you and that what ever happens either good or bad I'll be there to share it with you, if you want me.


Love ya always
Martha
